General Price List

These prices are effective as of August 1, 2017 and are subject to change without notice.

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Professional Services

BASIC SERVICES OF FUNERAL

DIRECTORS AND STAFF$3,075.00 C G

Our fee for the services of funeral director and staff includes, but is not limited to, staff to respond to initial request for service, arrangement conference with family or responsible parties, arrangement of funeral, preparation and filing of necessary authorizations and permits, recording vital statistics, preparation and placement of obituary notices, and coordination with those providing other portions of the funeral, e.g. cemetery, crematory, vault companies and others as required. Also included in the charge are overhead expenses relative to our facility such as insurance, maintenance and utility expenses, secretarial and administrative cost, and equipment and inventory expenses.

This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select. (This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremation, immediate burials, and forwarding or receiving remains.)

EMBALMING$ 645.00 C G

Embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

Embalming is a chemical process which provides temporary preservation of the body and eliminates health hazards; therefore, it is a policy of this funeral home that remains be embalmed or refrigerated if held over 24 hours after death. This is for the protection this facility, the general public, and our employees.

We respectfully ask that all bills be paid in full at the completion of the arrangement conference.

For your convenience, we accept the following methods of payment at-need: Cash, Check, or Credit Cards. We accept Visa, MasterCard and Discover.

CASH ADVANCE ITEMS:

For your convenience, we regularly coordinate with third party providers on a family's behalf to arrange products and services such as newspaper notices and obituaries, flowers, police escort, and death certificates, etc. These third-party costs are associated with a funeral but not provided by our funeral home. When these cash advance items are included as part of the funeral contract, payment for such services MUST be made prior to services being rendered.

INSURANCE POLICIES:

Life insurance policies may be used as a payment method if the insurance benefit is able to be assigned to the funeral home. Bring your loved one's policy information to the arrangement conference so we may review the policy. First, we will verify that the policy benefits exist and that the benefits may be assigned. If the policy benefits cannot be assigned (such as in the case with state and federal policies) we cannot accept it as a payment method. A policy with "Estate" as the beneficiary cannot be accepted since it is subject to Probate. Please note: life insurance assignment incurs a processing fee charged by a third party on the assignable amount, plus any service fee imposed by the processor for each policy processed, which is usually deducted from the policy benefits.

BANK ACCOUNT FUNDS:

If payment is made from a bank account of the deceased, most banks will issue a cashier's check payable to the funeral home (even before a death certificate has been issued by The State) upon the presentation of a copy of the Statement of Goods and Services from the funeral home by the next-of-kin to the bank.

- Loan Option: In most cases, banks will advance a loan to a responsible borrower with adequate collateral or credit. If you have a life insurance policy that is a state or federal policy, or a policy with an "Estate" designated as the beneficiary, you may be able to use these policies as collateral. Talk to your local banker about your options.

PREARRANGEMENT POLICIES:

At-need, any local, and many out-of-town, funeral home prearrangement plans are welcomed at our funeral home. We will review your prearrangement contract with another funeral home at no extra cost and advise you of any pending balance or lapse that may have occurred without your knowledge. Any costs that are not covered by the prearrangement plan will be the responsibility of the family and MUST be paid prior to services being rendered.

Prearrangements – Change of Funeral Home Provider (Pre-Need):

It's not a funeral home's pre-need, it's your pre-need. All pre-arranged funeral plans may be transferred to whichever funeral home you choose.

New Prearrangements:

We encourage everyone to PREARRANGE and fund their funeral needs WELL IN ADVANCE of illness or advanced age to avoid the stress and uncertainty of any financial burden an unexpected death might impose upon their surviving family.

Prearranging is intended to be a long-term planning tool. Although, even those prearrangement plans set when death is imminent or when your days seem numbered can benefit your surviving family as well.

Prearrangement Payment Options include: Cash, Check Credit/Debit Card, Monthly/Semi-Annual/Annual Installments with or without Insurance Protection.

To quote the Boy Scout and Girl Scout Mottos, "BE PREPARED."

It is better to have it and not need it than to need it and not have it.
